Knife-Wielding Congolese Stab American Duo

Attack Follows Fatal Traffic Mishap

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo was surrounded by more than 20 (AP) — Screaming Congolese shouting, knife-wielding Congolese day battered and knifed two members of the U.S. Embassy staff after their car accidentally killed a Negro cyclist. The Congolese set fire to the car after the Americans fled.

Embassy political officer Frank Carlucci of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was stabbed in the back and beaten as he covered the retreat of three others in the car, including an American woman.

Carlucci then fled the angry crowd by jumping aboard a bus, blood dripping over his suit.

Chief Warrant Officer Clyde St. Lawrence of New Bedford, Mass., a member of the military attaché's staff, was stabbed three times and received numerous blows as he fled from the car, which he had been driving.

St. Lawrence was picked up and driven to safety by the U.S. vice consul, Miss Alison Palmer, of Amityville, Long Island, N.Y.

The Americans were driving to Leopoldville's airport to see off Deputy Undersecretary of State Loy W. Henderson, who was leaving after a two-day visit to the Congolese capital.

OAS Prepared To Invoke Pact Against Cuba

SHARON, Conn. (AP) — Phyllis Haver, 60, actress in the era of silent films, has been found dead in her home here. State Police said Sunday it was a suspected suicide.

The body of the actress, who appeared in such early film classics as "What Price Glory?" and "The Way of All Flesh," was found Saturday by a housekeeper in the bedroom of her home.

An initial investigation indicated death was caused by barbiturate poisoning, a medical examiner said.

State Police said Miss Haver, who lived alone here since her divorce from William Seeman 15 years ago, had attempted suicide a year ago.

"Free Sobell" March Staged At Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — An estimated 200 persons demonstrated in front of the White House Sunday night, urging the release of Morton Sobell, imprisoned since 1951 following one of America's most famous spy trials.

The hour-long march climaxed a weekend of meetings aimed at winning freedom for Sobell, who was convicted as an accomplice of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg. The Rosenbergs were executed as atomic spies. Sobell was sentenced to 30 years in federal prison.

A group of Protestant ministers stood reciting prayers and Biblical passages as the demonstrators marched back and forth along Pennsylvania Avenue.

At another end of the White House grounds, George Lincoln Rockwell and his khaki-clad members of the American Nazi party carried on a counter-demonstration. Several dozen policemen stood by but no trouble was reported.

The Sobell marchers, describing themselves as representing all areas of the United States, said a petition signed by 1,000 clergymen will be presented at the White House Monday. It will ask either that Sobell be given a new trial or that the remainder of his sentence be commuted.

Sobell, now in the Atlanta federal prison, has maintained he is innocent.

Johnson Flies To Paris For NATO Conference

PARIS (AP) — Vice President-elect Lyndon B. Johnson, pointedly confining himself to his post as senator, flew to Paris Sunday and plunged into preparations for this week's conference of the North Atlantic Alliance parliamentarians.

He called a meeting in his downtown hotel. There the delegation went over the agenda for the six-day conference and discussed positions which the bipartisan group will take.

At the same time the delegation was briefed by W. Randolph Burgess, U.S. ambassador to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Johnson and his wife, Lady Bird, took an overnight flight from Washington on a Military Air Transport jet which arrived in Paris about dawn. Johnson told a small group of officials and newsmen on arrival that he was "very happy to be back in Paris. It is his first trip here in four years."

He said he will not be able to reveal anything about the policies of the new administration until after the inauguration on Jan. 20.

Associates said he is here purely in his capacity as a senator and that any statements or speeches he makes should be considered in that context and not as coming from a spokesman for President-elect John F. Kennedy.

Although there was no official indication from either Johnson or French sources, it was understood he would like to pay a call on President Charles de Gaulle.

U.S. Embassy Clerk Shot By Cuba Captain

Wounded In Climax To Argument Over American $5 Bill

HAVANA (AP) — A Cuban army captain in civilian clothes shot and seriously wounded a young U.S. Embassy clerk Saturday night after a night club argument about the authenticity of an American $5 bill.

Cuban police said Sunday the clerk, Wayne Henderson, 22, of Pasadena, Calif., had refused to pay his check in Cuban pesos and called them "Communist money."

Henderson, who works in the embassy's communications section, was reported in serious condition but out of danger after undergoing an emergency 2½-hour operation at the National Police Hospital.

Acting Foreign Minister Carlos Olivares called at the hospital to inquire about his condition.

Havana police identified Henderson's assailant as Capt. Jorge Robreno and said he is being held in La Cabana military prison. They said the shooting was accidental.

"I shouted to Dannemiller, 'Get your wife out of here before they get at her.'

"The Dannemillers got out and somehow pushed through the crowd unhurt. The crowd was going after the driver, St. Lawrence, hitting him and slashing him with knives as he fled.

"I decided to stay behind at least until the others could get away. One man stabbed his knife in the direction of my heart, but only tore the jacket. Later, when I got aboard a bus someone told me I was bleeding. I realized then I was stabbed in the back."

Tension Running High

The incident reflected the high-tension atmosphere in this country.

Thousands of civilians and military personnel carry sidearms as the government issues warnings that an invasion is coming to topple Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government. Castro has cautioned his volatile people against using the weapons to settle their personal quarrels.

Cuba is also short of dollars because of its economic policies and pressure by the United States. Dollars are rarely seen on the open market, and government currency regulations require all businesses to exchange their dollar revenues for pesos at the national bank. Dollars thus have found their way onto the black market, where they bring up to four pesos each, against an official rate of one-to-one.

The shooting occurred outside the 21 Club across the street from the luxury Hotel Capri on what used to be Havana's tourist belt.

Cuba Police Version

This was the police version:

Henderson tried to pay his check at the nightclub with a U.S. $5 bill. Cashier Damaso Rodriguez refused to accept the money, declaring the bill was counterfeit.

Alberto Blanco, an off-duty policeman at the club with his wife, asked to see the bill. He also said it was bogus.

Blanco asked Henderson to pay in Cuban pesos and then accompanied him to the police station.

U.N. Mission Going To Congo Despite Threat

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)

The head of the U.N. Conciliation Commission for the Congo said Sunday nothing would keep the commission from going there to seek peace among rival political leaders.

Jaja Wachuku of Nigeria, newly elected chairman of the 15-nation African-African commission, thus defied a Congolese officials' threat that 5,000 troops would bar its members from Leopoldville airport, where they are scheduled to arrive this week.

Talking with a reporter, he also cast doubt on speculation that the U.N. General Assembly seats President Joseph Kasavubu's Congolese delegation, the commission may call off the trip.

Joseph Nussbaumer, Congolese commissioner for the interior, said at a news conference in Leopoldville Friday that 5,000 soldiers would go to the airport there to keep the commission from landing.

Col. Joseph Mobutu, the Congo's army commander and military ruler, would not support this threat. He said, "it is no concern of mine."

Wachuku, answering questions by telephone from his New York hotel, said he was not upset.

"I go," he said. "I have booked my passage and I go. I don't see any danger."

He explained that Nigeria had two battalions of soldiers and three battalions of police with the U.N. force in the Congo and the force itself totaled around 20,000 men—quite enough to protect the commission.

Meanwhile, the assembly Monday will continue debate on a recommendation of its Credentials Committee that it seat a Congolese delegation headed by President Kasavubu and backed by the United States and allies.

Shortly after the mechanics had approved the new contract the board members of the MTA met and also approved it, clearing away the last obstacle to resumption of service.

There was no immediate reaction from Kennedy.

A delegation of the legislature presented the resolution to Clifford who relayed it to the Massachusetts senator.

Prof. Richard Neustadt of Columbia University in New York, an authority on governmental transitions, will sit in on at least part of Kennedy's talks Monday with Clifford.

A Washington lawyer who formerly was chief White House counsel in the Truman administration, Clifford will be giving Kennedy a report on number and types of key top-level jobs the new president must fill upon his inauguration on Jan. 20 or soon afterward. About 1,400 posts are involved.

Kennedy Sunday night received a resolution of the Louisiana Legislature asking his position on the action of a federal court in ordering the legislature not to interfere in school integration in New Orleans.

St. Lawrence was taken on a stretcher to Lovanium Hospital, where he received a blood transfusion. His condition was described as not serious.

Carlucci's wound required three stitches.

"We were driving along a two-lane highway when a cyclist showed up and attempted to cross it," Carlucci said.

"We stopped, the man stopped and then turned back after he was in the middle of the road. The car turned in the same direction, rammed into him and plunged into a ditch. The cyclist was killed instantly."

"I shouted to Dannemiller, 'Get your wife out of here before they get at her.'

OAS Prepared To Invoke Pact Against Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Organization of American States has reached majority agreement on applying the 1947 Rio pact in investigating Guatemala's charge of aggression from Cuba, diplomatic sources said Sunday.

The shooting occurred outside the 21 Club across the street from the luxury Hotel Capri on what used to be Havana's tourist belt.

This was the police version: Henderson tried to pay his check at the nightclub with a U.S. $5 bill. Cashier Damaso Rodriguez refused to accept the money, declaring the bill was counterfeit.

If Cuba is found guilty of aggression political and economic sanctions could be imposed by the OAS.

Guatemala and Nicaragua were hit last week by antigovernment risings which they charge were backed by Cuba. Costa Rica was involved when the Nicaraguan invaders crossed over from its territory.

Under the 1947 pact, known more formally as the Inter-American Treaty of Reciprocal Assistance, an attack against one member of the American family of nations is treated as an attack against all.

The treaty specifies that the hemisphere's foreign ministers can be called together to decide what steps should be taken in situations imperiling the peace and security of the hemisphere.

Alberto Blanco, an off-duty policeman at the club with his wife, asked to see the bill. He also said it was bogus.

Ike Accepts Italian Envoy's Resignation

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower Sunday accepted the resignation of James D. Zellerbach, San Francisco industrialist, as ambassador to Italy.

In a letter made public by the vacation White House, Eisenhower lauded Zellerbach for his record during the nearly four years he headed the U.S. Embassy in Rome.

"You have served your country with a high sense of dedication and purpose, of which you should be justly proud," the President said.

Zellerbach submitted his resignation Oct. 17 asking Eisenhower to accept it at a future date that suited him. He told the President "my personal affairs have necessarily suffered from neglect."

"I go," he said. "I have booked my passage and I go. I don't see any danger."

Katanga President "Stood Up" By U.S. Envoy Due To Mixup

ELISABETHVILLE, the Congo derson," was the reply in English. (AP) — A top U.S. diplomat and his party got tangled Sunday in a diplomatic mixup that left Katanga officials feeling insulted at what one called the Americans' "shoddy attitude."

Officials of this secessionist province, anxious to bolster their prestige against the central Congo government at Leopoldville, had arranged a rousing reception for U.S. Ambassador Clare Timmerlake.

The ambassador had to cancel a three-day semi-official visit he planned here, but news of the cancellation never got through via the Congo's uncertain communications.

The situation for the United States in Katanga is already delicate, since any U.S. move displaying friendliness to Katanga President Moise Tshombe reverberates in the complicated political atmosphere of Leopoldville.

Instead of Timberlake, Loy Henderson, the U.S. State Department's deputy undersecretary for administration, arrived in Elisabethville — but that was only a coincidence.

Not even U.S. Consul William Cannup was aware that Henderson was on the plane and Timberlake couldn't make it.

A special Katanga honor guard lined up in front of the air terminal building. A thoroughly rehearsed military band was there — with "Dixie" in its repertoire as a proper serenade from a government of secessionists.

A group of black American limousines waited to convey the honor guests to the city.

Tshombe and his ministers, all spruced up and polished — one even wore evening dress — stood in the blistering sun.

A rock 'n' roll band — expecting to find American jazzman Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong on the same plane — practiced variations.

The huge blue-and-white U.S. Air Force plane taxied up.

The door opened and a dozen men descended. Several ignored the reception party and promptly began snapping pictures in all directions.

"Good day, Mr. Ambassador," said Tshombe in French. He extended his hand to an elderly bald man heading the group.

"Actually I am not the ambassador. My name is Loy Hen-

Six Lose Lives In Md. Traffic Over Weekend

By The Associated Press

Six persons were killed in Maryland traffic accidents during the weekend, increasing the state's toll for the year to 461, four under the figure for the same date in 1959.

The smile slipped from Tshombe's face. "But where is the ambassador? Why is he not here?" He asked.

Henderson explained there had been an accident in Leopoldville in which Timberlake was indirectly concerned and he decided not to make the trip at this time.

He did not go into details of the accident.

Tshombe said he was most sorry, but wanted to know why no one had let him know.

"I guess we tried to but it seems there was no communication," said Henderson. "But we will stand in for Timberlake if you like."

Tshombe stood bewildered and then asked: "Will you stay here as guest of my government for a day or two?"

Henderson shook his head:

"Sorry, we can spend only an hour here. We just dropped in on our way to Madagascar, you know."

Then Tshombe, Henderson and various members of the two parties went to review the honor guard.

In all, Henderson had spent 15 minutes with Tshombe and then flew eastward.

It developed Louis Armstrong and his band — in a State Department goodwill tour — flew in from Rhodesia earlier on a private plane. The rock 'n' Roll band waiting to herald their American hero silently packed away their instruments and went home.

Henderson replied he would not pay in "Communist money."

Bianco went outside with Henderson and Lance Cpl. William E. Tompkins, 20, of Warren, Ohio, a Marine guard at the embassy who had been nightcubing with the embassy clerk. The two Americans began scuffling with the policeman. Tompkins came out of the car and drew his 45-caliber pistol in an attempt to halt the fight. Tompkins and Henderson turned on Robreno and the gun went off accidentally.

This police account labeling the shooting an accident differed from the version given by a U.S. Embassy spokesman.

The spokesman described the policeman as a Cuban who had produced some kind of an identification. After an argument in the nightclub and on the street, the spokesman said, the Cuban shoved Henderson, who attempted to defend himself.

Tompkins restrained Henderson for a moment and then released him, the embassy said, and at that point another Cuban walked up and shot Henderson at close range with a pistol.

Agreement Reached On OECD Charter

PARIS (AP) — U.S. sources said Sunday practically complete agreement has been reached on a charter for a new body to replace the Organization for European Economic Cooperation.

The new grouping, to be called the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, will include as members the 18 OEEC partners, plus the United States and Canada. The United States and Canada are non-voting associate members of the OEEC.

The new charter is expected to be published later this month, prior to ratification by the member governments.

The OEEC was formed following World War II to aid in the rebuilding of Western Europe. One of its major functions was distributing U.S. Marshall Plan aid.

Pattern Of State Income In Line With Estimates

BALTIMORE (AP) — Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein reported Sunday that the pattern of State income for the first four months of fiscal 1961 closely follows advance estimates on which the total was based.

Goldstein said revenues from individual income taxes dropped $21,000 in October below comparable figures of a year ago and remain about $940,000 behind for the July-October period.

But he said the lag was temporary and due "principally to the change from September 15 to October 15 in the due date" for declarations of estimated tax.

The victim, Jesse L. Colbert, a Negro, was injured when the car he was driving went off the highway and struck a pole near the Baltimore County town of Bradbury.

Three other persons were fatally injured Friday before the statistical period began at 6 p.m. Those killed Friday night and Saturday included:

Philip T. Braheim, 26, of Silver Hill, Prince Georges County, killed Saturday when his car struck a bridge abutment at the intersection of Maryland 210 and Oxon Hill Road while being pursued by police.

Albert G. Casto, 27, of Alexandria, Va., died Saturday when he was struck by a car in Silver Hill.

Paul H. Lord, 22, of Salisbury, fatally injured Saturday when his car overturned and hit a pole south of Salisbury. He was home on leave from the Marine Corps.

Carl E. O'Dell, 40, of North Beach, killed when his car went through a guard rail near Chesapeake Beach, Calvert County.

Arthur J. Connor, 53, of Baltimore, died Saturday of injuries received Friday in a three-car crash on the Harrisburg Expressway. One of the other drivers was killed in the accident early Friday.

Don Varney, 59, of Halethorpe, was struck and killed by a car while walking across Washington Boulevard near Woodside Friday night.

The spokesman said the U.N. investigation into the massacre, which took place five days ago, is proceeding smoothly.

The southern Katanga town of Luena was reported still besieged by rebel tribesmen. The spokesman said, "the tribesmen have made no attempt to attack the town yet but they have not withdrawn either."

The new grouping, to be called the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, will include as members the 18 OEEC partners, plus the United States and Canada. The United States and Canada are non-voting associate members of the OEEC.

Katanga President "Stood Up" By U.S. Envoy Due To Mixup

ELISABETHVILLE, the Congo (AP) — A top U.S. diplomat and his party got tangled Sunday in Mary-land traffic accidents during the diplomatic mixup that left Katanga officials feeling insulted at what one called the Americans' "shoddy attitude."

Officials of this secessionist province, anxious to bolster their prestige against the central Congo government at Leopoldville, had arranged a rousing reception for U.S. Ambassador Clare Timberlake.

The ambassador had to cancel a three-day semi-official visit he planned here, but news of the cancellation never got through via the Congo's uncertain communications.

The situation for the United States in Katanga is already delicate, since any U.S. move displaying friendliness to Katanga President Moise Tshombe reverberates in the complicated political atmosphere of Leopoldville.

Instead of Timberlake, Loy Henderson, the U.S. State Department's deputy undersecretary for administration, arrived in Elisabethville — but that was only a coincidence.

Not even U.S. Consul William Cannup was aware that Henderson was on the plane and Timberlake couldn't make it.

A special Katanga honor guard lined up in front of the air terminal building. A thoroughly rehearsed military band was there — with "Dixie" in its repertoire as a proper serenade from a government of secessionists.

A group of black American limousines waited to convey the honor guests to the city.

Tshombe and his ministers, all spruced up and polished — one even wore evening dress — stood in the blistering sun.

A rock 'n' roll band — expecting to find American jazzman Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong on the same plane — practiced variations.

The huge blue-and-white U.S. Air Force plane taxied up.

The door opened and a dozen men descended. Several ignored the reception party and promptly began snapping pictures in all directions.

"Good day, Mr. Ambassador," said Tshombe in French. He extended his hand to an elderly bald man heading the group.

"Actually I am not the ambassador. My name is Loy Hen-

Six Lose Lives In Md. Traffic Over Weekend

By The Associated Press

Six persons were killed in Maryland traffic accidents during the weekend, increasing the state's toll for the year to 461, four under the figure for the same date in 1959.

The smile slipped from Tshombe's face.

"But where is the ambassador? Why is he not here?" He asked.

Henderson explained there had been an accident in Leopoldville in which Timberlake was indirectly concerned and he decided not to make the trip at this time.

He did not go into details of the accident.

Tshombe said he was most sorry, but wanted to know why no one had let him know.

"I guess we tried to but it seems there was no communication," said Henderson. "But we will stand in for Timberlake if you like."

Tshombe stood bewildered and then asked: "Will you stay here as guest of my government for a day or two?"

Henderson shook his head:

"Sorry, we can spend only an hour here. We just dropped in on our way to Madagascar. They know."

Then Tshombe, Henderson and various members of the two parties went to review the honor guard.

In all, Henderson had spent 15 minutes with Tshombe and then flew eastward.

It developed Louis Armstrong and his band — in Africa on a State Department goodwill tour — flew in from Rhodesia earlier on a private plane. The rock 'n' Roll band waiting to herald their American hero silently packed away their instruments and went home.

Henderson replied he would not pay in "Communist money."

Pattern Of State Income In Line With Estimates

BALTIMORE (AP) — Comptrol amounted to 32.1 per cent of the year. Louis L. Goldstein reported total estimated for the year.

Sunday that the pattern of State Sales tax collections, Goldstein income for the first four months said, were up $1.2 million during of fiscal 1961 closely follows ad-October, an increase of 8.7 per cent. Total collections of $24.7 mil-

Stockholders Of B&O To Hold Annual Meeting

BALTIMORE (AP) — Stockholders of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad will receive a financial and operations report and possibly some views on mergers at their annual meeting here Monday.

Howard E. Simpson, president of the B&O, will make the report for the line's board of directors and announce the company's decision on dividends for next year.

Under provisions governing its bonds, the B&O is required to act each year on a full year's dividends out of earnings that will be payable during the next 12 months.

Dividends for this year were announced a year ago at the annual meeting, with a $4 payment on preferred and a $1.50 payment on common stock authorized. The final quarterly payments on that schedule now are due.

There has been no formal statement whether merger possibilities will be discussed by Simpson in his report to stockholders.

The B&O meeting comes just 24 days before the announced expiration dates of Chesapeake & Ohio Railway and New York Central counter proposals to stockholders of the B&O in a battle for merger or control.

The C&O last June offered one share of its common stock for each preferred share of B&O, and one C&O common for each 1½ shares of B&O common. Two weeks later the Central offered 1½ of its shares for each share of B&O common, plus $9 in cash.

The C&O recently said it had received tenders from B&O stockholders representing 28.1 per cent of the company's common stock and 37.8 per cent of the preferred. Central has not listed the number of B&O shares pledged to it.

The B&O indicated a favorable reaction to the C&O offer when it first was made, but then told its stockholders to make their own choice when the NYC offer was extended.

Stockholders Of B&O To Hold Annual Meeting

BALTIMORE (AP) — Stockholders of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad will receive a financial and operations report and possibly some views on mergers at their annual meeting here Monday.

Howard E. Simpson, president of the B&O, will make the report for the line's board of directors and announce the company's decision on dividends for next year.

Under provisions governing its bonds, the B&O is required to act each year on a full year's dividends out of earnings that will be payable during the next 12 months.

Dividends for this year were announced a year ago at the annual meeting, with a $4 payment on preferred and a $1.50 payment on common stock authorized. The final quarterly payments on that schedule now are due.

There has been no formal statement whether merger possibilities will be discussed by Simpson in his report to stockholders.

The B&O meeting comes just 24 days before the announced expiration dates of Chesapeake & Ohio Railway and New York Central counter proposals to stockholders of the B&O in a battle for merger or control.

The C&O last June offered one share of its common stock for each preferred share of B&O, and one C&O common for each 1 1/2 shares of B&O common. Two weeks later the Central offered 1 1/2 of its shares for each share of B&O common, plus $9 in cash.

The C&O recently said it had received tenders from B&O stockholders representing 28.1 per cent of the company's common stock and 37.8 per cent of the preferred. Central has not listed the number of B&O shares pledged to it.

The B&O indicated a favorable reaction to the C&O offer when it first was made, but then told its stockholders to make their own choice when the NYC offer was extended.

A year on Jupiter is approximately 12 years on earth.

Md. Commission On Aging Backs Tax Exemption Bill

BALTIMORE (AP) — The State Compact on Mental Health, sponsored by the Council of State Government, has adopted a program which it will implement and ratify by 24 states, ask the 1961 Maryland General Assembly to accept when it convenes in January.

One of the measures the group accepted Saturday was a bill which would permit reduced property taxes throughout Maryland for low-income home owners over 65.

The bill already has been accepted in principle by Gov. Tawes. A partial exemption based on income, already is in effect in Montgomery County.

The program accepted by the commission was part of a report submitted by the group's legislative council. The commission is headed by Del. Margaret C. Schwinhardt, D-Montgomery.

The program approved also included:

1. A recommendation that the State require either ramps or access at ground level in all future construction in which it has an interest.

2. Urged measures to permit recipients of old age assistance to earn some money without penalty. The commission said an exemption of "at least" $30 a month would encourage some effort at self-support. It asked the legislature to petition Congress to change the law.

3. A resolution asking the Legislative Council to determine whether to repeal the law requiring children, who are financially able, to support their parents. The commission said the law creates hardship on those parents whose children do not support them voluntarily.

4. Participation in the Interstate

Keeping Up With Hollywood

by Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD—"Big River, Big Man," so long without a star, will have Gary Cooper as the stalwart hero. There's much more to the deal than this one picture which Dick Powell is preparing to put on the screen.

When Spyros Skouras and Bob Gildstein were in Europe recently, they were with Charlie Feldman, Gary's friend and representative, who signed a multiple deal with 20th Century-Fox.

Charlie reported that Gary is well and happy, and working hard so that he can return to the USA with Rocky, who is with him to see that he doesn't spend all his time in front of the camera while filming "The Naked Edge."

Before they can even count any more absentee ballots, Fabian will be back in Hollywood to report to Richard Shepherd and Martin Jurov for "Breach Pad." Fabian had a lot of other plans but he was told to propel himself by jet from New York to take the co-starring role with Tommy Sands in this semi-musical.

Fabian plays a boy in the Coast Guard, with Tommy as his pal. They rent a house at Balboa Beach over Easter week and you can guess what happens!

Tommy, who is in New York appearing on the Perry Como show, also was told to return, as the picture gets started almost immediately with Phil Karlson directing.

The high altitude of Reno where Clark Gable filmed "The Misfits" might very well have brought on his heart attack. I asked Doc Erickson, production manager, if the four additional weeks Clark had to work, plus the fact that Marilyn Monroe was late, Doc said, "Director John Huston, who loved Clark, and is the same type man, is heartbroken over Clark's death, as is our producer, Frank Taylor. We told Clark how good he is in 'Misfits,' and Clark said he never made up his mind about how good he is in a picture until the public makes it up for him.

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

Arrest Those Habits That Steal Your Time

Where does the time go, you accustomed to doing certain things as you like? As each minute things in a certain way at a certain time to catch up. Have you taken time. The more we depend ever figured out just how much upon this preoccupied regularity, time is automatically wasted by the more upset we are when it is those set habits that automatically enslave you?

Yet, the change is good for us. It sharpens our senses, increases our consciousness of our work habits, stirs up renewed interest in places, people and pursuits that have become common-place. This is one advantage of living in a climate that has four distinct and separate seasons.

This theory for mastering time is on the ascendency in the business world. There is no reason why it cannot be applied also to the business of running a home. Weather or not, don't be shackled by the same routines month after month. Start to shake loose by women who combine both in small matters first. Try a different order of procedure in dressing; map out a new path of getting dressed.

Sailing smack against your habitual routines may cast you adrift for awhile. We become so mired. Switch some of your

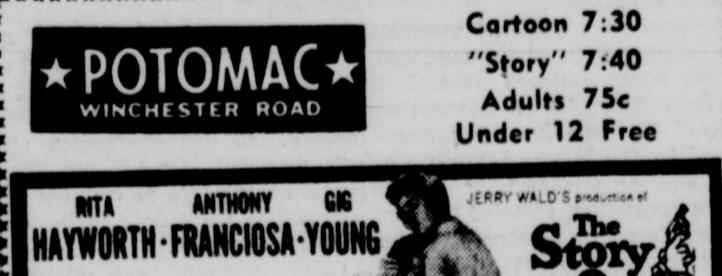

I am sorry if anyone got the idea that "Becket," now playing on Broadway is dying on the vine, from an item I wrote a few days ago. That was not my intention.

"Becket" is doing very well, and according to Peter Glenville, the director, this play grossed over $6,000 during election week, the week when all the theatres were starving.

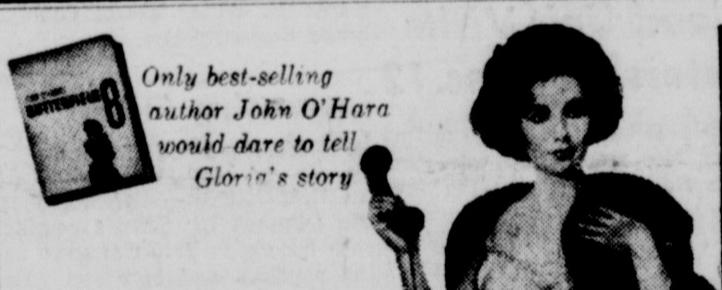

The very polite Mr. Glenville says it was always the plan of "Becket" to move out of the St. James Theatre to the smaller Royale, because "Do Re Me" was booked for the St. James in December.

Speaker's Stand Gift

CHELMSFORD, England (UPI)—Essex County Sunday presented a special speaker's stand to a U. S. Air Force unit because of American "admiration" for Sir Winston Churchill.

The stand was carved from an oak tree grown in Woodford, Churchill's parliamentary constituency, and was presented to the 20th tactical Lighter wing station at nearby Wethersfield.

Yule Decoration Of Frostburg Streets Is Set

Ceremony Due
Friday Night

FROSTBURG — Through the effort of the Frostburg Merchants Association in cooperation with the city and other organizations, Main Street from Bowery to Water Street will take on the Christmas look this week as pine stringers with lights will be strung between the poles across the street.

The merchants have spent several nights the past few weeks, rebuilding about half of the stringers, repairing others and winding the pine roping around the finished stringers. Workmen from the Potomac Edison Company will begin early this week installing the decorations in order to have them ready for the official opening of the Christmas shopping season Friday evening.

On Friday at 7:30 p.m. the decorations will be turned on by Mayor Joseph James from in front of St. Michael's School yard. Following the turning on of the lights, "Santa Claus" William Preston, street commissioner, will put in his appearance to give the annual treat of candy to the small children.

Aiding Santa in his work will be the committee which includes Howard F. Ward, Richard Green and John Lotz. Members of the Air Squadron 42 and Troop 42, Boy Scouts, will assist in directing the children to Santa.

No Change In Our Policy On Berlin

Two years ago next Sunday, November 27, Soviet Premier Khrushchev demanded that the occupation of Berlin be terminated and that the western sector of the former German capital be declared a "free demilitarized city." The notes making these demands carried a time limit of six months and thus bore the characteristics of an ultimatum.

When the United States, Great Britain and France refused to submit to the pressure, Khrushchev backed down to the extent of removing the time limit. Foreign ministers of the three Western powers and the Soviet Union then labored over the question at Geneva for three months in 1959 without coming to agreement. A further attempt at solution failed when the East-West summit conference at Paris last May aborted on the eve of the projected discussions. Khrushchev at that time angrily threatened to sign a peace treaty with East Germany, depriving the Western powers of their occupation rights in West Berlin, "when we consider the time to be right."

The new Soviet clock on the Berlin time bomb now calls for maintenance of the status quo in Berlin and Germany until another Big Four summit conference can be held, presumably early in 1961. President-elect John Kennedy stated in his TV debate of October 13: "We will meet our commitments to maintain the freedom and independence of West Berlin." He added that he was sure there wasn't any doubt in the mind of the Russians on that score.

The official U. S. view is that the problem of Germany in the long run can be solved only through German reunification—a solution the Soviets so far have rejected. Meanwhile, we are on record as being willing to consider interim arrangements to reduce tensions in Berlin and lessen present dangers. This stance leaves room for negotiation, but Kennedy's statements should place Khrushchev on warning that U. S. resolve in 1961 will be no less firm than it was two years ago when Khrushchev delivered his first Berlin ultimatum.

Jessup And The IPR

Frederick V. Field, an avowed Communist, resigned as secretary of the Institute of Pacific Relations by sending this amazing telegram to Dr. Philip Jessup, who held various important positions in that organization which had such an enormous influence upon American policy in China and is now elected to the International Court. Field had agreed to head the American Peace Mobilization, a pro-Russian, pro-Communist Fifth Column within the United States:

"I have been attending a peace congress of some 6,000 representatives from all parts of the country, labor, farm, and middleclass organizations. This is a genuine peace movement through the interpretation of democracy. These people and our program represent what I have for long profoundly believed in. They are asking me to become the executive of a continuing organization, and I feel a deep conviction that I must accept... This show has been and will be smeared by the newspapers. I anticipate losing the respect of many present friends. These developments I regard as inevitable if we do the job in this country that was not done in France, etc. In view of the inevitable criticism and misunderstanding, and because of my continued deep interest in the IPR welfare, I feel that I must, by this telegram, affirm my immediate resignation from all the IPR responsibilities that its officers wish to accept. Finally I must urgently hope for both personal and professional associations that you will reserve your own judgment until I can talk with you."

F. V. Field"

Dr. Philip Jessup who then headed that organization and who is now elected as American judge on the International Court of Justice at The Hague, said of this at an executive committee meeting—I quote the minutes:

"... Dr. Jessup explained that he had subsequently talked at length with Mr. Field who explained in detail the reasons that had lead him to accept the new position. Mr. Parker voiced the feelings of all present when he inquired whether Dr. Jessup felt that Mr. Field could not be persuaded to resume the secretaryship of the American Council."

There is a very long record on these subjects in the McCarran Committee reports. The indications are that Dr. Jessup was anti-Chiang Kai-shek, that he co-operated with known American Communists and that in view of subsequent events, his judgment was wrong.

When Dr. Jessup was in the State Department, one of his advisers on China was Lawrence K. Rosinger who testified that he had been in China from April to September 1946 and therefore qualified as an expert! Rosinger prepared a memorandum for Jessup entitled "American Policy Toward China." During questioning by the McCarran Committee, Rosinger on several occasions took the plea of the Fifth Amendment. When asked for his authority for some of his statements, Rosinger replied:

"Senator Ferguson, Yes, but you were giving the State Department advice. I want to know the source of your advice."

"Mr. Rosinger, If you want it in general terms, the source was a great deal of reading and thinking about the China situation."

Asked further:

"Senator Ferguson, Did you meet Mao Tse-tung?"

"Mr. Rosinger, I respectfully decline to answer, relying on the Constitutional privilege in the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution."

There is very much more material in the Institute of Pacific Relations records which show that Dr. Philip Jessup's judgment concerning Far Eastern affairs was not correct. The Institute regarded itself as impartial as between the United States and Soviet Russia.

When a man is designated as a judge of the International Court, it is expected that he has had important diplomatic or judicial experience. The great John Bassett Moore was once an American jurist on such a court. The present judge, Green Hackworth, was for many years a most important American authority on international law, long associated with the State Department. His eight-volume work, "Digest of International Law," is a classic in the field.

'Just A Scratch Or Two'

U.S. Position Supported By International Law

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — It was inevitable that immediately after the Presidential election some action would be taken with respect to communist-directed military operations in this hemisphere.

The orders issued by President Eisenhower to the U. S. Navy to assist the governments of Guatemala and Nicaragua are in line with historic principles of international law. It is significant that the two governments requested the military aid. It is important to note the exact language of the White House announcement, which was as follows:

"In response to the request of the governments of Guatemala and Nicaragua, surface and air units of the U. S. Navy are in a position in which they could assist these governments, should it become necessary, to seek out and prevent intervention on the part of Communist-directed elements in the internal affairs of Guatemala and Nicaragua through the landing of armed forces or supplies from abroad."

The incident is more important, however, in a broader sense. It means that American patience with Castro's antics is about exhausted and that from now on his regime will be held to a strict accountability for any military movements that threaten the internal peace of other countries.

The decision to go ahead with military measures in Latin America was one that would have caused embarrassment if taken during the recent political campaign. It would have been charged by the Democrats that the Republican administration was creating a "crisis" in order to influence votes. Conversely, the Republicans were cautious lest they precipitate some kind of armed conflict which would spoil their record of avoiding military operations.

But the period of self-imposed restraint now seems to be over. Whether the Nicaraguan or Guatemalan governments held off their requests for help until after the November 8 election in the United States, or whether the crisis itself didn't develop till the last few days, is not known at this writing. What is known is that the Washington government has ordered military action to stop Castro and his lieutenants from seizing, in behalf of Communism, any other Latin American countries. For what has been announced as a policy in the Caribbean applies equally to any similar requests that may come hereafter from South American countries.

But what of Cuba itself? The day is not far distant when the United States, acting in accordance with accepted principles of international law, may have to land troops to take possession of American properties in Cuba seized by the Castro government. While the Havana authorities have promised compensation, the bonds they offer in payment are worthless. The United States has a right to recapture the properties of its own citizens and hold them until such time as satisfactory arrangements are made to pay for them.

The broader question of how such a step will be received by the Cuban people—that is, whether it will be misinterpreted as an alleged American interference with the rights of the Cuban government by the United States—is one that will be debated before any decision in reached here. But if the Castro government persists in its confiscatory policies, it seems certain that a formal rupture in diplomatic relations will ensue. European and Latin American countries would then be asked similarly to withdraw diplomatic recognition of the Havana government. This would indicate to the people of Cuba that their present government no longer has the confidence of the other governments of the free world.

THE CANDIDATES — Washington newsmen who were on the long and arduous campaign trail with Sen. John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon firmly believe that something has to be done to lessen the rigors of future campaigns.

Here were two young and vigorous men who beat themselves into the ground in their search for votes. They traveled more, talked more, shook hands and survived greater physical exertions than ever before in a Presidential campaign.

It is doubtful that two older men could have stood the pace. Yet, the jet and television age will make the same demands on future candidates who might be older and less able to stand up to the rigors and hardships of future campaigns.

It is difficult to envision any future candidate who will not try to put out the same physical effort as the young men did in 1960, unless some agreement can be reached to curtail their activities to the point where a normal human being can survive them.

New Modifications Of Penicillin Being Tested

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

The new semi-synthetic oral penicillin has opened up a new field for chemists to juggle molecules and prepare a host of modifications. One of these new variants is already available and early reports on its use are encouraging.

This new-comer has the laboratory designation of X-1497 and the chemical structure is sodium (2,6-dimethoxyphenyl) penicillin monohydrate. Since it is destroyed by acids in the stomach, the product must be given into a muscle or vein.

The variant does everything the older penicillin is capable of doing, plus the ability to kill resistant staphylococci. In the initial test it was administered to 20 patients with staphylococcal infections and 90 per cent had excellent results. Among these were 100 serious cases, many of whom were expected to die, but 81 recovered.

Time will be needed to evaluate this agent. Most antibiotics are reported as effective against resistant staphylococci when they are introduced. They lose their efficacy in a year or so, possibly because staphylococci grow stronger and offer more resistance.

The original semi-synthetic (pheneticillin) has been on the market more than a year and is distributed by seven pharmaceutical houses under different names. It is one of our most heavily promoted drugs. But there is some question to an older and natural competitor—penicillin G.

The absorption of all types of penicillin is reduced appreciably by foods. For this reason, these tablets should be taken on an empty stomach. Most physicians prefer the injection type of penicillin in the treatment of severe ailments because they can determine just how much is absorbed by the system.

the party and once again given the chairmanship of the powerful Finance Committee. Other bolters were also welcomed back into the fold. This time there's growing opposition to Byrd, including that from Gov. Lindsay Almond, once a key member of the Byrd machine. Many Democrats resent the fact that Byrd has all the advantages of a Democratic chairmanship while voting and working for the Republicans.

New Cabinet Job

You can be fairly certain that the present mayor of Philadelphia, Richardson Dilworth, will be given a place in the Kennedy Cabinet—if he wants it. Dilworth succeeded Joe Clark as the third Democratic mayor of Philadelphia since the Civil War, and has continued Clark's civic improvement program with great success. He is one of the nation's leading experts on urban development. And since Kennedy promised to appoint a new member of the Cabinet to handle big city problems, Dilworth stands No. 1 on the list for this post.

In appointing Dilworth, Kennedy would not only benefit from the services of a good man, but would pay off a political debt. The politician to whom he owes most is Congressman Bill Green, Democratic boss of Philadelphia. At the Los Angeles Democratic Convention, it was Green who put the heat on Gov. David Lawrence and forced Lawrence to declare for Kennedy—just at the psychological moment when it helped to swing the nomination.

Then, on November 8, Green produced again. He helped roll up the whopping 327,000-vote margin for Kennedy—more than the total margin Kennedy received in the entire United States.

Though Dilworth and Green are both Democrats, there's an uneasy truce between them. Dilworth has ambitions to go places in Pennsylvania—probably run for governor. Green also has ambitions—preferably the Senate. He would also like to get more control over Philadelphia.

In any event, with Mayor Dilworth promoted to the Kennedy Cabinet, Green's ambitions might be more easily fulfilled.

AT GUANTANAMO BAY, Cuba—We were playing golf in the hot morning sun recently. The grass on the hills was sparse and tough. The temperature reaches 94 there without a struggle, so we agreed to quit after nine. Burris Jenkins, the artist, was teamed with me. He is a slender man with the eyes of a person and the smile of the devil.

Our opponents were Jack Altshul of Newsday, a typical city editor gone straight, and Lt. Cmdr. James Lloyd, a tall blond athlete who is Press Information Officer at the naval base. Altshul teed off. He is a pink bubble and, when he goes into his back swing, he twists like the cream on top of a charlotte russe.

"Don't worry," said Jenkins. "I've got him psychologically." I don't know what it means, but Burris was right. Jack hit the ball with a number two wood and it went down the fairway, hitting every rock on the course. It looked like a missile that can't make up its mind. Commander Lloyd was second and he kept telling us that he had played golf only three times in his whole life, so he hauled off and hit the ball and it went 220 yards straight down the middle. "Accident," he said, lying in his bicuspid.

Mr. Jenkins, who can draw anything but a check, placed the ball on a fat tee, squinted at the landscape, looked down at the ball, hitched, twretched, shuddered, jerked, bent the left ankle, dropped the right shoulder, muttered a prayer, closed his eyes, and hit the ball a mile. He kept his head down so long we thought he was dead.

I dropped a ball on the grass, took a two-iron from a caddy who grins in Spanish, executed a mighty swing and watched the ball dribble off the front end of the tee. It was like that all morning. My partner made the good shots; I kept the game even.

We were fifteen cents ahead of Altshul and Lloyd at the 7th when Burris suggested that we quit. He's a poor winner. The rest of us stared through our own perspiration at the green, 340 yards away, and it kept appearing and disappearing in the shimmering sun like a mirage. We quit. Mr. Jenkins suggested that as we did not finish nine holes, all bets were off.

In that way, he generously gave away seven and a half cents of my money. We rode back to the cool ceiling fans at the Officers Club.

"You don't mind the fifteen cents," Burris Jenkins said as we got out of the car. I tried to unkink two back muscles. "What fifteen cents?" I said. The money we won, he said.

"No," I said. "If it came to three dollars, I'd ask you to send it to Castro in dimes. How many pieces of silver does that make?"

No Change In Our Policy On Berlin

Two years ago next Sunday, November 27, Soviet Premier Khrushchev demanded that the occupation of Berlin be terminated and that the western sector of the former German capital be declared a "free demilitarized city." The notes making these demands carried a time limit of six months and thus bore the characteristics of an ultimatum.

When the United States, Great Britain and France refused to submit to the pressure, Khrushchev backed down to the extent of removing the time limit. Foreign ministers of the three Western powers and the Soviet Union then labored over the question at Geneva for three months in 1959 without coming to agreement. A further attempt at solution failed when the East-West summit conference at Paris last May aborted on the eve of the projected discussions. Khrushchev at that time angrily threatened to sign a peace treaty with East Germany, depriving the Western powers of their occupation rights in West Berlin, "when we consider the time to be right."

The new Soviet clock on the Berlin time bomb now calls for maintenance of the status quo in Berlin and Germany until another Big Four summit conference can be held, presumably early in 1961. President-elect John Kennedy stated in his TV debate of October 13: "We will meet our commitments to maintain the freedom and independence of West Berlin." He added that he was sure there wasn't any doubt in the mind of the Russians on that score.

The official U. S. view is that the problem of Germany in the long run can be solved only through German reunification—a solution the Soviets so far have rejected. Meanwhile, we are on record as being willing to consider interim arrangements to reduce tensions in Berlin and lessen present dangers. This stance leaves room for negotiation, but Kennedy's statements should place Khrushchev on warning that U. S. resolve in 1961 will be no less firm than it was two years ago when Khrushchev delivered his first Berlin ultimatum.

WASHINGTON — It was inevitable that immediately after the Presidential election some action would be taken with respect to communist-directed military operations in this hemisphere.

The orders issued by President Eisenhower to the U. S. Navy to assist the governments of Guatemala and Nicaragua are in line with historic principles of international law.

Everybody knows that Cuba is the point of origin of forces hostile to other Central American republics, so it is likely that a close watch will be maintained by the U. S. Navy's airplanes on any vessels or planes which leave Cuban shores for any destination in neighboring countries. This kind of surveillance will gradually increase and could conceivably mean the stoppage and search of vessels of any other country whose cargoes or passengers are destined for ports in Nicaragua or Guatemala.

"In response to the request of the governments of Guatemala and Nicaragua, surface and air units of the U. S. Navy are in a position in which they could assist these governments, should it become necessary, to seek out and prevent intervention in the internal affairs of Guatemala and Nicaragua through the landing of armed forces or supplies from abroad."

the Democratic platform on armed strength. He does disagree on civil rights, but that doesn't come under his committee.

However, the Clark proposal would affect Sen. Jim Eastland of Mississippi, who as chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee has direct jurisdiction over civil rights and is in vigorous disagreement with the Democratic platform.

Big City Vote

Senator Clark has sent letters to 99 Senators—every one except himself—proposing 10 new changes of the Senate rules. In addition, he has been on the long-distance telephone to such key liberals as Sens. Paul Douglas of Illinois, Pat McNamara of Michigan and William Proxmire of Wisconsin in an effort to mobilize Senate sentiment for the rules changes well before the Senate convenes.

Clark proposes to read Sen. Harry Byrd of Virginia and Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, plus probably Sen. Spessard Holland of Florida, out of Democratic Senate councils. Since they bucked the Democratic ticket in their states, he would deny them the right to sit in Democratic caucuses where Democratic policy is fixed.

Clark also proposes to deny any Democratic Senator the chairmanship of a committee when he disagrees with that part of the Democratic platform over which his committee has jurisdiction.

This would not affect such Southern Senators as Dick Russell of Georgia, who as chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee has no disagreement with into the party and once again given the chairmanship of the powerful Finance Committee. Other bolters were also welcomed back into the fold. This time there's growing opposition to Byrd, including that from Gov. Lindsay Almond, once a key member of the Byrd machine. ## Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Our club members contribute every week to a Night Out Fund. Once a year we girls have dinner in a nice restaurant and it's fun for everyone.

Last week was our annual night out. There's been a lot of talk as well as his, tell him you've thought it over and changed your mind. Then—please do.

DEAR ANN: Your advice is usually excellent, but occasionally I suspect you make a ridiculous statement to see what response you'll get. Well, I've fallen into your tender trap. I want to protest against overly-clean housekeepers. You said you'd prefer the super-clean to take home.

It is true the restaurant advertises "All you can eat for $1.85," so these women claim it was all right. Was it? DON'T KNOW

DEAR DON'T: When a restauranteur advertises "All you can eat for $1.85," they don't mean "All you can carry out." The women who piled food on their plates to take home were guilty of bad manners.

I once knew a woman who ruined the inside of a $35 purse because she wanted to take home a piece of 30c pastry she couldn't finish at the table. She learned that a cheap stunt can sometimes be pretty expensive. I know—because the woman was me.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband passed away when our son was very young. My big aim in life was to see that Wilfred got a good education. I succeeded. He will be graduating from a fine eastern school in the spring.

I only want one thing from him, and I'd like to know if I have the right to insist on it. I think he does not agree.

I'm a lonesome person who has a difficult time making friends. I want Wilfred to marry a girl from this city—someone who has parents here—so I will have the pleasure of associating with her people. I have no particular girl in mind, Ann, I just want him to

Have you noticed what the kids are like from these antiseptic homes? They always have colds and they're afraid to play with other kids for fear they'll get dirty and catch it. A woman who can't leave the dishes in the sink and go to a movie with her husband is a poor wife. Thanks for listening. I think I'd better go sweep the kitchen floor before someone falls down in the garbage.—NO NEUROTIC

DEAR NO: I don't have to set tender traps to get "response."

Extremes are always bad and the overly clean housekeeper is as sick as the dirty one. Excuse me while I go wipe a fingerprint off the wall.

Does almost everyone have a good time but you? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Well-Liked," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—As South you hold:

AKQ 3 2 ♥A 2 ♦AQJ 3 ♠KQJ

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

1 ♥ Pass 2 ♦ Pass

2 ♠ Pass 4 ♣ Pass

What do you bid now?

A—Pass. This answer may suggest that your contributor is suffering from a fear neurosis until inquiry is made into the significance of the bidding. You are responding to the raise in the opening two bid suit. It is a specialized bid and by convention describes a hand which contains very good trump support but no aces or kings and no singletons. Therefore, it is clear that your side lacks the club suit. Since there is a heart loser to dispose of and a diamond finesse to contend with, Slam, therefore, should be regarded as too remote for practical consideration.

4 NT Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A—The hand contains 22 points in hearts in addition to a good five card suit. Consequently, you have sufficient excess values to accept the invitation and should bid six no trump.

Pass 2 ♥ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A—Pass. Partner has a more or less reasonable idea of your holding from your double of the one spade bid. You have done your duty and should sit back and relax.

What do you bid now?

A—Pass. This hand is a rock bottom minimum one no trump, and it is not to be presumed that partner has as many as 10 points, else he should make a seven bid. If partner had less than 10 points but a fresh hand he would have been at perfect liberty to contract for four spades himself.

Q. 5—Both sides vulnerable with 60 part score and as South you hold:

What do you bid now?

A—Two clubs. With two worthless deuce suits, a suit contract would seem preferable. This is not forcing, for a new suit after a one no trump bid may be dropped. However, it may afford partner an opportunity to return to two spades if that should prove to be the best contract.

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Our club members contribute every thing too much? —S. C.

DEAR S. C.: Yes. Too much. A year ago we girls have dinner in a nice restaurant and it's fun for everyone.

Last week was our annual night out. There's been a lot of talk back and forth on the telephone about something that happened.

We went to a lovely place that serves Smorgasbord—all you can eat for $1.85. Several girls went back a second time, which was perfectly O.K.—I think. Some of the girls who went back, however, piled up their plates as high as they could. Then they wrapped the chicken and ham in paper napkins and put it in their purses to take home.

It is true the restaurant advertises "All you can eat for $1.85," so these women claim it was all right. Was it? DON'T KNOW

DEAR DONT: When a restaurant advertises "All you can eat for $1.85," they don't mean "All you can carry out." The women who piled food on their plates to take home were guilty of bad manners.

What do you bid now?

A—Three hearts. This answer may suggest that your contributor is suffering from a rear neuritis until he finds the minimum response. The jump raise in the opening two bid suit is a specialized bid and by convention describes a hand which contains very good trump support but lacks aces and kings and singletons. Therefore, it is clear that your side lacks the club ace. Furthermore, there is a heart loser to dispose of and a diamond finesse to contend with. What do you bid now?

A—Three spades. This is not regarded as a reverse in the true sense of the word, however, since minimum rebid after a reach game contract, nothing is to be lost by stopping off on the way to try out your major suit. The three spade bid does not necessarily show additional values.

Q. 2—As South you hold:

♦A K 7 3 ♠K 5 4 ♦A J 9 2 ♣A J 5

The bidding has proceeded:

1 NT Pass 2 ♠ ?

What do you bid now?

A—Our own choice lies between a double and a bid of three diamonds, with a slight preference for the latter. This may be a normal response as the normal call would appear to be two spades. However, preparation for the next round suggests the wisdom of a three diamond bid. When the opponents bid three hearts, it is unlikely that they may then compete conveniently with a bid of three spades. Whereas, if you bid two spades now and the opponents bid three hearts, you will find it necessary to bid four diamonds in order to carry on the fight.

Q. 6—As South you hold:

A—Two clubs. With two worthless doublets, a suit contract would seem preferable. This is not forcing, for a new suit after a one no trump bid may be dispensed with. There is also an opportunity to return to two spades if that should prove to be the best contract.

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Carr's 36-yard touchdown run with a fumble recovery in the waning moments of the final period climaxed a tremendous second-half surge by the Philadelphia Eagles Sunday and gave them a comeback 17-10 football victory over the New York Giants.

The Eagles, trailing 10-0 at half-time, roared back with a touchdown in the third period and a tying field goal in the last period. Then Carr grabbed a fumble by Mel Trippett with 2½ minutes left and ran unopposed over the goal with the winning score. The sudden turn of events stunned a Yankee Stadium crowd of 63,571.

The triumph was the seventh straight for the Eagles following their opening day loss to Cleveland, and tightened their grip over the Giants on first place in the Eastern Conference of the National Football League. The Giants' record is now five victories, two defeats and one tie.

Former Major
Leaguer, Dies

BALTIMORE (AP) — Frank Willard Brower, a major league baseball player in the early 1920s, died Sunday at Johns Hopkins Hospital. He was 67.

Brower, an outfielder known as "Turkeyfoot," played for the Washington Senators from 1920 through 1922 and for the Cleveland Indians in 1923 and 1924.

He played for the Baltimore Orioles of the International League in 1927 through 1929 before retiring from baseball to devote his time to a grain business on Maryland's Eastern Shore.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday in Centreville, Md., with burial in Sudlersville, Md.

Surviving are his widow, Marian Merrick; a daughter, Mrs. James B. Turner, Raleigh, N.C.; a son, Frank W. Brower Jr., of Jacksonville, Fla., and a brother and sister.

St. Louis Wrecks
Redskins, 26-14

WASHINGTON (AP) — The St. Louis Cards wrecked Washington's defense Sunday with a devastating John Roach-Sonny Randle passing attack that connected for three touchdowns in a 26-14 National Football League victory over the Redskins.

Roach pitched scoring passes of 27, 7 and 37 yards to Randle, the pro sophomore from Virginia.

With Roach and Randle overshadowing the brilliant ball-carrying of John David Crow on offense, the combination had to yield a share of credit to defensive halfback Jerry Norton who intercepted four of Redskin Ralph Gugelmin's passes.

Gifford Suffers Brain Concussion

NEW YORK (UPI) — Halfback Frank Gifford of the New York Giants was taken to the hospital Saturday night with a brain concussion suffered when he was hit hard by Philadelphia Eagles' linebacker Chuck Bednarik during the final minutes of Sunday's bruising game.

Some of the Giant players were angered over the manner in which Gifford was knocked out.

Dr. Francis Sweeny, the Giants' physician, said that X-rays will be taken Monday and it will be at least 48 hours before the full extent of Gifford's injuries could be determined. Gifford was expected to remain in St. Elizabeth's Hospital for several days.

Hebert Captures
Cajun Golf Title

LAFAYETTE, La. (AP) — Lionel Hebert of Lafayette, PGA champion in 1957, won the third annual $15,000 Cajun Classic Golf Tournament here Sunday with a 12-under-par 272.

The chunky, 32-year-old stroker played sub-par golf on each round or the 6,530-yard, Oakburne Country Club course, beating out Johnny Pott of Shreveport and Jon Gustin of Gladwyn, Pa., by two strokes.

Hebert took 15 greens in regulation and got three birdies, finishing impressively on the 18th with a birdie, for the second birdie on that hole in two days. Sunday's birdie was on a 15-foot putt.

FANCY PASSING

WACO, Tex. (UPI) — During the 1958 football season, Buddy Humphrey of Baylor completed more passes than anyone else in Southwest Conference history. Humphrey connected on 112 tosses for 1,316 yards.

B&O Superintendent
In DeMarcay Event
Defeats Judge Harris

Raymond J. Cannon, superintendent of the Cumberland Division of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, won the first annual seniors' golf tournament of the Cumberland Country Club by defeating Judge Morgan C. Harris, 2 up, in the championship match held the past weekend.

The winner will receive the Paul DeMarcay Memorial Trophy, donated Carroll Boggs, club professional.

Sixteen members over 55 years old participated in the tourney this year.

Bill Zeller won the turkey tournament held the past weekend at the Cumberland Country Club by leading a field of 24 players with a net score of 76-8-6.

Players with flags on par three holes were: No. 1 — George Garlitz. No. 6 — James W. Beacham. No. 10 — John S. Wilson. No. 12 — Howard Swartzwelder. No. 15 — Joe Wolfe.

The golf shop at the Cumberland Country Club will close next Sunday and will not reopen until next spring.

Dallas Loses 9th
Straight, 26-14

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The San Francisco 49ers cashed in on Dallas mistakes, John Brodie's passing and Tommy Davis' toe for a 26-14 victory in the National Football League Sunday.

It was Dallas' ninth straight loss and means the Cowboys won't be able to win a game at home this year because they will be on the road from now on.

Dallas led for a half and in the fourth period went back ahead again, but the 49ers, with Brodie in the saddle, roared 80 yards for a touchdown, made by C. R. Roberts on a 20-yard blast on the draw.

The 49ers scored twice more after that but there was never much doubt about San Francisco winning the game after that go-ahead touchdown. Davis kicked four field goals of 18, 28, 16 and 22 yards.

San Francisco 3 3 3 17-26
Dallas 0 7 0 7-14

Lee Sets Record In Oiler Victory

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Rookie Jacky Lee, playing only his second game as a pro, set an American Football League record Sunday as his touchdown passes of 78, 92 and 73 yards gave the Houston Oilers a 20-10 victory over the Denver Broncos.

Bill Groman was on the receiving end as Lee, understudy for the injured George Blanda, tied the old mark and then set a new long distance scoring pass record for the young league.

The 78-yarder in the first period put Houston in front, 7-3, and tied the record held by Billy Wells of Boston. The 92-yarder that set the new mark came early in the second period. Lee then boosted the halftime lead to 20-3 by hitting Charlie Hennigan with the 73-yarder.

A 37-yard field goal by Gene Mingo gave Denver an early lead. The Broncos later moved inside the Houston 5-yard line four times but scored only on a 26-yard pass by Frank Tripucka.

Denver 3 0 7 0-10
Houston 7 13 0 0-20

Vernon Leaves Bucs To Manage At Washington

Doherty Named G.M.
Of New A.L. Team

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER
WASHINGTON (AP) — Mickey Vernon, who couldn't make it back to Washington as a baseball coach since he once wanted to have himself one better. He returns in no subordinate capacity, but as manager of the capital's new American League club.

Vernon was hired as field manager and Ed Doherty, president of the American Association, was named general manager over the weekend. Each received a two-year contract. Salaries were not disclosed.

Elwood R. Quesada, federal aviation administrator who heads the group that obtained the new Washington franchise, announced the appointments after a long Saturday afternoon conference with Doherty and Vernon. They had been given the jobs by telephone — Doherty in Daytona Beach, Fla., and Vernon in Wallingford, Pa., late the night before.

Vernon is understood to have sought a berth in Washington, where he won two American League batting titles for the old Senators, after spending the 1959 season in Milwaukee. Nothing developed, so he landed in Pittsburgh with his lifetime buddy, Manager Danny Murtaugh.

From a world championship club, the 42-year-old Vernon now has switched to a team that exists only on paper. Washington and its baby brother, the new Los Angeles entry, begin filling their rosters on Friday when they draw from a pool of players made available by other teams in the league.

Beall 4-Game Win Streak Cuts LaSalle's Edge To 8-6

Manges Plays Opposite Role From 1956,
LaSalle Overall Holiday Mark 13-12-1

Four years ago LaSalle High's Explorers held an 8-2 lead in the football series with Beall High School but the Mountaineers, coached by Jim Manges in 1956, won by the score of 7-6 and that started the Frostburg school's current four-game winning streak in Thanksgiving Day games.

Manges is now rounding out his first season as head football coach at LaSalle and he is hopeful that his Explorers will stop Beall when the teams meet for the 13th consecutive year on Thursday at Frostburg.

This series started in 1944 after the fall sport was revived at Beall after a lapse of 25 years. LaSalle holds the edge in wins, eight games to six. Gerard "Jerry" Calhoun has a clean slate against LaSalle as his teams have won three in a row.

Condie Sparks Terps To Final Win Of Season

Junior Gets 3 TDs
In 44 To 12 Rout

By The Associated Press
University of Maryland fans probably wish the football season was just starting instead of being finished. And so does halfback Dennis Condie.

However, both can look forward with great anticipation to next season.

Maryland's flourishing 44-12 finish against Virginia Saturday was its fifth victory in the last six games. Condie, a junior, ran for three touchdowns, including the last 91 yards of a kickoff return that started on the Maryland goal. Win Six, Lose Four

The final 6-4 Maryland record was its first winning performance since 1955 and in only the second year of coaching by Tom Nugent.

The Terrapins jumped off to a 23-0 lead in the first quarter. Condie, who had been virtually unheard from in Maryland's first eight games, ran 24 yards for one touchdown, 14 to set up a second and five yards for a third.

His third touchdown in the second quarter was strictly something from Nugent's fertile mind.

Quarterback Dick Novak received a Virginia kickoff on his goal. He returned to the 20, stopped, turned and lateralized all the way across the field back to the 9 to Condie who followed a wave of blockers down the sidelines.

Returns Kick 89 Yards

Tom Brown also pulled a nifty kickoff return of 89 yards for another Maryland touchdown in the third quarter.

The Maryland passing combination of quarterback Dale Betty and Gary Collins refused to be left out. They got together for a 16-yard touchdown in the last quarter, the eighth of the season for Collins.

Condie scored his first touchdown of the season the previous week against North Carolina. That was a 90-yard return of a kickoff. Western Maryland and Maryland State joined Maryland in posting satisfying finishes Saturday.

Packers Lose, Muff Chance To Tie Baltimore

Goal By Villanueva Wins Game, 33-31

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The upstart Los Angeles Rams dealt Green Bay's National Football League title hopes a crushing blow by edging the Packers 33-31 Sunday on Danny Villanueva's fourth field goal of the game with 22 seconds remaining.

The Packers, who staged a brilliant second-half rally to pull from 20 points behind, lost a golden chance to move into a tie for first place with the Baltimore Colts in the Western Division.

The Rams, who scored all their points as the result of Green Bay miscues, took advantage of a fumble recovery on the Los Angeles 40 to move downfield and set up Villanueva's game-winning boot from eight yards out.

Paul Hornung of Green Bay boosted his league-leading point total to 119 with a pair of touchdowns, a field goal and four conversions.

The Packers now have a 5-3 record and are one game behind Baltimore.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers beat the clock and the Cleveland Browns 14-10 Sunday in a hair-raising National Football League game.

It was a battle to the finish with the Browns knocking on the Steelers' doorstep until the final gun. The game ended with Cleveland on Pittsburgh's nine.

Milt Plum, the Browns quarterback, had a chance to pull it out on the last play of the game, but missed on a pass to end Leon Clarke in the end zone.

Quarterback Bobby Layne engineered a 75-yard touchdown drive in the final minutes to pull out the victory for the Steelers.

Trailing 10-7 and needing two yards for a first down and four yards for a touchdown, Layne handed off to Tom Tracy who skirted right end for the winning score with just 2:15 left.

Auburn's Dyas Operated Upon

AUBURN, Ala. (UPI) — Auburn fullback Ed Dyas went under the knife Sunday for a fractured cheek bone which apparently has ended the greatest goal kicking career in collegiate football.

Dyas, a candidate for All-American honors, was injured shortly after he set two national records with his fabulous foot. He booted a 21-yard field goal in the third quarter against Florida State University to reset his records for most in a career, 17, and most in a single season, 13.

Auburn won the game 57-21, the Tigers piling up their biggest score in 16 years. It was the most points scored in an FSU team in the school's history.

The operation was performed in Mobile by Dr. Dooley Gilchrist.

Texans Get Junior Rose Bowl Berth

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI) — Tyler (Tex.) Junior College, winningest JC team in the nation, Sunday was named eastern representative for the 15th annual Junior Rose Bowl football game Dec. 10.

The Texas team will play a western representative — probably Long Beach (Calif.) Junior College — for the mythical JC championship of the nation. The western representative will be named officially Monday.

Rangers Lose, 4-3

NEW YORK (UPI) — Veteran Gordie Howe ignited a three-goal rally in the second period by scoring while his team was short-handed and the Detroit Red Wings went on from there to edge the New York Rangers, 4-3, Sunday night at Madison Square Garden.

Maple Leafs Win

BOSTON (UPI) — Frank Mahovlich and goalie Johnny Bower led the Toronto Maple Leafs to a 3-2 National Hockey League win over the fifth-place Boston Bruins Sunday night before a crowd of 11,829 at the Garden.

Missouri Defeat Muddles Race For National Title

No. 1 Spot Wide Open; Duke, Pitt Suffer Rude Jolts

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

After 10 weeks of struggle, the national championship of major college football still is up for grabs now that the No. 1 team in the Associated Press rankings has been thumped — and thumped good — for the third consecutive Saturday.

Missouri went the way of first Iowa and then Minnesota this past weekend. Three days after Missouri was named No. 1 in the AP poll — which determines the national champion in the final balloting — Kansas made good on the third try in a "big game" and tagged the Tigers 23-7.

No. 1 Spot Wide Open

That upset not only left the No. 1 spot wide open, with Iowa (8-1), Mississippi (8-0-1), Minnesota (8-1) Navy (8-1) and Missouri (9-1) all possible choices, but coupled with Utah State's surprise 6-0 defeat by Utah it left New Mexico State (9-0) and Yale (9-0) the only unbeaten-united teams in major college play.

Minnesota, beaten only by Purdue (23-14), gained a share of its first Big Ten title since 1941 by crushing Wisconsin 26-7.

Duke Is Spilled

The Orange Bowl group, handed a jolt by Duke's 7-6 upset by North Carolina, meets this week to pick an opponent for Missouri.

Duke claimed the Atlantic Coast title, however, when South Carolina tied N.C. State 8-8.

In the other major conference races settled Saturday, Utah State had to do with a title tie with Wyoming, which whipped Brigham Young 30-6, in the Skyline; and Yale wrapped up the Ivy League and Big Three titles by swamping Harvard 39-6. In the Game as the Ellis put away their first perfect season since 1923.

The other unbeaten, New Mexico State, stayed that way with a 20-3 gambol over Hardin-Simmons. Kansas' victory gave the bowl-banned Jayhawks a 7-2-1 final record and their first undisputed Big Eight conference title in 30 years. Kansas had lost two other big games against national powers — falling 14-7 to Syracuse, then ranked No. 2, and 21-7 to Iowa, then No. 1 — and was tied by fallen giant Oklahoma 13-13.

Play In Orange Bowl

But while the upset snatched away a cincinational title, the conference crown and Missouri's first perfect season, all was not misery for Mizzou. Athletic Director Don Faurot accepted an invitation for a quick return to the Orange Bowl at Miami, where the Tigers lost 14-0 to Georgia last New Year's day.

Arkansas and Washington also filled bowl berths. Arkansas is the host team in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas after clinching no worse than a tie for the Southwest Conference title with a 34-6 job on Texas Tech. And Washington, Big Five champ, was given a return trip to the Rose Bowl in a poll of conference members Saturday. The Huskies (9-1) got past Washington State 8-7 on a two-point conversion pass in the final period Saturday.

Rice could tie Arkansas for the southwest crown by beating Baylor this week, but was beaten out of the Cotton Bowl by a loss to Arkansas. The Owls are sure to lure an invitation elsewhere, however, with a decision over Baylor. Two other clubs could be bowl-bound.

Pitt Is Jolted

Moss Takes Grand Prix

Win Worth $7,500, Ireland Is Second

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (UPI) — Stirling Moss of England led almost all the way Sunday in piloting a black Lotus to victory in the 250-mile United States Grand Prix.

The victory, before some 25,000 fans in 80-degree weather, moved the 33-year-old former racing champion into third place in international grand prix standings. He won $7,500 for Sunday's victory.

Moss took over the lead on the fifth lap of the 75-lap race for single seaters and stayed in front all the way, winding his way neatly around the 3.275 mile course.

Another Lotus and another Englishman, Innes Ireland, finished second while Bruce McLaren of New Zealand was third in a Cooper.

Jack Brabham of Australia, who already has cinched first place in grand prix competition, was fourth in a Cooper.

Mason's Dairy Cows Among Top Producers

Five cows from the herd of John T. Mason, Cresaptown, were among the top 11 producers of butterfat during October, the Potomac Valley Dairy Herd Improvement Association's Unit No. 1, reports.

One of the five animals, a graded Holstein, No. 111, tied with a registered Holstein named Roxy owned by James E. Miltenberger, Route 1, Ridgeley, W. Va., as the top producer of butterfat. Each averaged 77 pounds, Roxy giving 1,800 pounds of milk and No. 111 giving 1,920 pounds of milk during the month.

Another graded Holstein owned by Mr. Mason finished third with an average of 74 pounds of butterfat, while his other cows, also graded Holsteins, were fifth, seventh and ninth among the top 11 producers.

The number of cows tested during October was 281 and the average production of all cows was 804 pounds of milk, 28.5 pounds of butterfat, for a test percentage of 3.54.

The highest herd average was maintained by cows owned by Harry H. Delbrook, Mt. Savage, with an average production of 1,032 pounds of milk and 35.6 pounds of butterfat for his 34 animals. The test average for the herd of Holsteins was 3.45 per cent.

Three of Mr. Delbrook's Holsteins were among the top 11 butterfat producers, finishing sixth, eighth and 11th. The only graded Guernsey among the top 11 producers was Calico, owned by the Workman Brothers of Frostburg.

Charges Filed Against Driver In 3-Car Crash

Three Persons Hurt On New Boulevard

A 25-year-old Oldtown area driver was charged with two motor vehicle violations yesterday following a spectacular three-car collision near the intersection of Oldtown Road and the Industrial Boulevard. Three persons were injured in the crash.

Officer Charles Cubbage of the Cumberland Police Department said he charged Hervey Leroy Middleton of RD 1, Oldtown, with exceeding 70 miles per hour on the boulevard and withreckless driving.

The city policeman said he witnessed the accident which occurred about 3:15 p.m. approximately 150 feet east of the intersection of the boulevard and Oldtown Road, just within the city limits.

Three Treated

Injured in the crash were Middleton, who sustained multiple cuts of the chin and left hand; Mrs. Lillian Kaiser, 75, of 525 Woodside Avenue, who had a possible fracture of the right leg, and some abrasions; and Leroy Carlton Kaiser, 12, grandson of Mrs. Kaiser, who complained of neck injuries, and who had cuts and abrasions of the back of his head.

All three were treated and released at Memorial Hospital after being taken there by ambulance and by Officer Cubbage in his police cruiser.

Also checked by a physician at the hospital was Mrs. Dorothy K. Frizzell, 49, of Route 4, Meyersdale, Pa., who was thought to have re-injured her left ankle which she had previously sprained in another mishap.

Officer Cubbage said the late model car driven by Middleton was traveling south on Route 51 at an excessive rate of speed when it plowed into the rear of an automobile driven by Mrs. Maida Lanon Kaiser, 40, of 318 Broadway, mother of young Leroy Kaiser.

The force of the impact caused Mrs. Kaiser's vehicle to sideswipe another car operated by Raymond Frizzell, 16, a Meyersdale school student and son of Mrs. Dorothy Frizzell.

All Cars Badly Damaged

Mrs. Kaiser's automobile was demolished, while each of the other two cars was badly damaged, Officer Cubbage stated. All three vehicles were traveling in the same direction at the time of the collision, he added.

The city patrolman said he was following Middleton's speeding car in an effort to halt the vehicle. He stated that he paced the car at speeds up to 85 miles per hour just before the collision.

Officer Cubbage said the Kaiser and Frizzell vehicles were traveling abreast of each other on the boulevard when Middleton's car crashed into the rear of Mrs. Kaiser's.

Mrs. Maida Kaiser apparently was uninjured in the crash but her son and his grandmother who were in the rear seat were badly shaken up. The grandmother had recently been released from a hospital with a heart condition, the officer said, and appeared to be in a state of shock when taken to Memorial Hospital in an ambulance. She was later released, however, after treatment and X-rays for her injured leg.

Young Frizzell also was unhurt in the crash.

Officer Cubbage said Middleton will be given a hearing on the motor vehicle charges at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday in Trial Magistrates Court.

Directory Library At Chamber Of Commerce

Mrs. John L. Baggett, office manager of the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce, and John C. Means, commercial representative for the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, are shown processing several new telephone directories which have been added to the chamber's directory library. The shelves contain phone and city directories.

Bishop's Volume Included In New Library Books

Among the new and interesting books available at the Cumberland branch of the Allegany County Library is a collection of stories and incidents from Jim Bishop's syndicated column entitled "Some Of My Very Best."

Mr. Bishop's column appears three days each week on the editorial page of The Cumberland News. The writer is noted particularly for two books, "The Day Christ Died" and "The Day Lincoln Was Shot."

"Destroyer Squadron 23" by Ken Jones is the fascinating and inspiring story of the naval warfare and strategy of a United States destroyer during World War II. Details of hitherto secret records are revealed, together with stories of the naval battles of Tassafaronga, Savo Island, Empress Augusta Bay and Cape St. George.

The well known radio commentator, Gabriel Heatter, has written the story of his life. Having overcome an emotional problem, the author hopes that this volume will prove helpful to those who find themselves in a similar situation.

"Anna Teller" by Jo Sinclair is the story of a 74-year-old grandmother who comes to the United States as a refugee from the 1956 Hungarian uprising. This well written novel "primarily deals with Anna Teller's personality and relationship with her family and son's friends and, secondarily, with the adjustment of a newcomer to America."

Do-it-yourself enthusiasts will be particularly pleased to know that the library has added a two-volume set of "Audel's Do-It-Yourself Encyclopedia." This recently published set provides technical information in clear, concise terms together with plans and

Various State Directories In C Of C Library

Telephone, City Lists Available

The Cumberland Chamber of Commerce maintains an up-to-date library of telephone and city directories at its office in the Liberty Trust Building.

The library consists of 105 city directories, representing 14 states, which have been made available by R. L. Polk and Company.

The collection of telephone directories includes 56 books from major cities in 12 states, and have been donated to the chamber through the cooperation of the C&P Telephone Company.

Both the city and telephone directories are available for the use of everyone in the community.

In addition to these directories, the library also contains copies of the Thomas Directory, Sales Management "Survey of Buying Power" and Buyers' Guides of various cities. These are available to members of the chamber.

The local Chamber of Commerce also has a collection of Cumberland city directories, starting in 1913 and continuing to the latest book. Also available are telephone directories from 1930 to 1960.

Robert C. Petersen, chamber manager, said many persons have found these old directories useful in checking on people and places of bygone days.

The library also contains census information, economic reports, small business aids and current magazines.

The chamber also is the local cooperative office for the U. S. Department of Commerce.

Piedmont Legion Post Fined $200

Officials of Kelly-Mansfield Post 52, Piedmont American Legion, were fined $200 Saturday at a hearing before Miss Madalyn Bazzie, Keyser Justice of the Peace.

The fines were levied after Legion officials pleaded guilty to charges of having unlicensed liquor on the premises and to possession of liquor for sale. The charges were the result of a raid by West Virginia authorities on November 13.

Miss Bazzie said she fined the club $100 on each count. Ollie W. Green, Piedmont bartender who was on duty at the time of the raid, had posted $500 bond pending Saturday's hearing.

Nine men who were arrested on gaming charges during the raid, earlier forfeited bonds of $32 each in the case.

A 32-year-old Piedmont man, Annon W. Flick Jr., is free on $1,000 bond on a charge of grand larceny. He is accused of taking $166 from the club premises prior to the Sunday raid and is now awaiting action of the January term of the Mineral County grand jury on the charge.

Police said whisky and tip boards were confiscated during the raid.

Robert C. Petersen, chamber manager, said many persons have found these old directories useful in checking on people and places of bygone days.

The library also contains census information, economic reports, small business aids and current magazines.

The chamber also is the local cooperative office for the U. S. Department of Commerce.

Yule Display To Be Lighted Friday Night

Students Will Sing Christmas Carols

Christmas street decorations began to appear in the downtown shopping area yesterday and will be turned on Friday night to mark the opening of the Yule shopping season in the Cumberland area.

The project is sponsored each year by the Retail Merchants Association of the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce.

Santa Claus is scheduled to turn on the lights Friday at 7 p.m.

Choral groups from Allegany and Fort Hill high schools will be on hand to sing the old familiar Christmas carols on downtown streets.

The traditional Christmas colors of red and green are being used for the decorations.

Order New Bulbs

To light the decorations, the Berlin lighting committee headed by S. Louis Curl ordered 2,000 new red and green light bulbs.

They will replace 10-watt bulbs which have been in use for several years and are of higher wattage to compete with the new mercury vapor lighting system which is being installed in the downtown business area.

The decorations have been freshened with new tinsel streamers and Christmas ornaments. While there is no basic change in the system, the sponsoring organization has been setting aside a substantial sum each year toward the purchase of new equipment each four or five years.

The association recently mailed requests to non-members for funds to help meet the costs of the decorations.

The Christmas shopping season will open officially Friday night.

Extra Nights Set

Stores will remain open until 9 p.m. on Friday, December 2 and on Friday, December 9, in addition to the usual 9 p.m. shopping available on Mondays.

They will be open until 9 p.m. Monday through Friday from December 12 through December 23 and will close as usual at 5 p.m. on Christmas Eve.

Since Christmas falls on Sunday, stores will observe the holiday on Monday, December 26, but will remain open until 9 p.m. on Tuesday, December 27.

Used Reefers Are Issued To Firemen, Auxiliary Police

New reefers have been issued to members of the Cumberland Police Department, according to Police and Fire Commissioner Philmore Fleming.

The old reefers, he said, were called in, and 30 of them issued to members of the Cumberland Fire Department, to be used going to and from work during the winter.

He said seven others were kept on reserve to be issued to new officers and the others were given to the Cumberland Auxiliary Police.

Mr. Fleming said most of the old reefers were in good condition and should last the firemen and auxiliary policemen for a number of years.

Rotary To Meet

Rev. H. M. Richardson, rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church and a member of the Rotary Club, will present the club's Thanksgiving program at its meeting tomorrow at 12:15 p.m. at Central YMCA.

This is the extent of a growing industry — one based on the continued and growing ability of Maryland's forests to support it.

March For MD Planned Here Friday Night

Over 300 Women To Ring Doorbells

The March for Muscular Dystrophy will be held here Friday night, according to Fire Chief Virgil Parker, president of the Allegany-Garrett Muscular Dystrophy Society.

Over 300 women have been recruited, he said, to canvass all sections of Cumberland.

The committee for the MD March will be Arthur Nave, Edgar Bucy, Albert Doub and Herman Myers.

In Frostburg, the doorbell ringing drive has been tentatively set for Friday and will be headed by Mrs. Nell Kennedy.

Chief Parker said the door-to-door solicitors have been instructed to leave their collections at any Cumberland fire station.

Over 600 coin containers have been placed throughout the two counties by fire fighters and will be picked up in December.

The containers were distributed in the counties by Alvin Rankin, Frostburg, assisted by the Allegany-Garrett Volunteer Firemen's Association. Edgar L. Bucy was in charge of the distribution here.

Fire Destroys Unoccupied Frame House

An unoccupied two-room frame house on Baltimore Pike was destroyed by fire early yesterday morning.

The house, owned by Mrs. Arbutis Yonker of Baltimore Pike, was located about 200 yards from the highway behind Miller's garage a mile east of the fire hall.

It had been vacated by a family of tenants only about two weeks ago.

Firemen were called at 1:45 a.m. when a neighbor noticed the fire. They responded with two trucks and 12 men, but found the house a mass of flames when they arrived.

The firemen played streams of water on the burning building and on the surrounding fields for more than two hours to prevent a forest fire. They were hampered in their efforts by live electric power wires which had been burned loose from the building and were lying on the ground.

A fire company spokesman said the cause of the fire was uncertain, but that officers of the company returned to the scene yesterday morning to investigate.
